       In some places there are no trees now, but the trees are homes for many animals.
       Animals move because there are people, roads
       and a lot of noise, too.
       Indians get ill when new people arrive. Some people want to kill them.

2 Suggested answers:
   Brian: Hello, I'm in Brazil. The Amazon is beautiful.
   David and I are going to race across the Amazon jungle. Racers from many countries are going to race too. There is a problem in the Amazon: the Indians are angry because the miners are going into the jungle.

Indians and they are very angry. We can’t understand the Indians but there is a woman, Astrid. She says that the Indians are angry because they think Brian and David are miners. Sometimes miners come to the village and they kill the Indians. Tomorrow Caruak and Brian are going to Una-Una and get the police. They are going to come and stop the miners.

5 Suggested answers:
Brian and David are thinking, ‘The Indians are going to kill us!’
Chief Maoni is thinking, ‘They are racers; they aren’t miners!’
Astrid is thinking, ‘Chief Maoni isn’t going to be angry with the racers.’
