1. Suggested answers:
   - Ali and his camera.
   - A boy.
   - He's from Turkey/the Middle East.

2. Some information on Istanbul:
   - Istanbul is the most populated city in Turkey.
   - It is the centre of culture and economy. (Kemal Atatürk moved the capital to Ankara after the War of Independence.)
   - People speak Turkish.
   - The western half of the city lies in Europe while the eastern half is situated in Asia; in between the two halves flows the Bosphorus Strait.
   - The Black Sea is to the north of Istanbul, and the Sea of Marmara is to the south of Istanbul.
   - Istanbul used to be called different names, for example, Byzantium and Constantinople.

3. Possible answers:
   - I will find a part-time job.
   - I will ask my family to give me enough money, and I will return it later.
   - I will go to the police.
   - I will be very scared, and I may cry.
   - I will be unhappy and tell all my friends about it.
   - Because Mrs Yildiz's son doesn't need the camera now.
   - Because Ali talks about his imaginary camera.
   - Because Mrs Yildiz likes Ali. She thinks he's a good boy.

6. Possible answers:
   - I think he wants to buy film with his money because it is his camera.
   - Selim thinks that Ali’s photos are good and that he’s learning quickly.
   - I think it’s because Selim likes Ali. He says Ali is a son to him.
   - I think Ali is very lucky to get a new job with the newspaper.
   - I think he’s lucky, but he deserves it.
   - I think that getting a camera for free and getting a job with a newspaper are too good to be true. It’s not that easy.
