10. a Pip lies about his experiences at Satis House because he is confused by his visit to Miss Havisham’s and ashamed that he is just a common boy. He cannot explain what happened to Mrs Joe and Mr Pumblechook, so he lies to them.
   b Pip is miserable on his first working day because he is afraid that Estella will see him at his dirtiest and commonest. He does not want to be a blacksmith any more.
   c Joe fights Orlick because Orlick is rude to Mrs Joe.
   d Biddy comes to live with the Gargerys to care for Mrs Joe after she is injured.
   e Pip wants to be a gentleman so that Estella will respect and love him.
   f Mr Jaggers brings news of Pip’s ‘great expectations’. He will be Pip’s guardian.
   g Pip goes to London so that he can be brought up as a gentleman.

11. a Pip loves Joe and knows that he is a good man, but he is embarrassed by him. He is ashamed of Joe’s simple life and lack of education and manners.
   b Pip admires Estella because she is beautiful and not common, although she is often cruel to him and makes him unhappy.
   c Pip trusts Biddy and tells her his secrets. He knows that she is wise and kind and wishes that he could love her instead of Estella.
   d Pip thinks that Mr Pumblechook is a fool. He recognises that Pumblechook pretends to have more influence than he really has.

38 Abel can be considered a victim both of society and of Compeyson. He had no parents to look after him and when he stole something, as a child, it was because he was hungry. Compeyson, a much more learned man than Magwitch, ‘used’ him to commit crimes and lay the blame on him. Like Cain in the Bible, Compeyson destroyed Magwitch’s life.

45 Possible answers:
Pip treats Provis with great tenderness. He even holds his hand during the trial. He’s not ashamed of sitting next to him. He then tells Provis about his daughter to make him happy.
46 Possible answers:
There was nobody else to do so, as Herbert was already in Cairo. It teaches Pip – and us readers – a lesson: the man Pip was so much ashamed of is the one that looks after him with loving care.
47 Possible answers:
She had suffered a lot with Drummle. He had treated her with great cruelty and meanness and was now dead. She had practically no money left.
‘Suffering has taught me to understand what your heart used to be. I have been bent and broken, but – I hope – into a better shape.’
